Thank you for choosing Buckeye Real Estate!! We hope we can assist you in your apartment search. We suggest that you select 2 or 3 apartments that interest you, and then walk by to see if you like the neighborhood. If you then decide to see the apartment, you may either knock on the door and politely ask the resident if you may look inside or you may make an appointment with the office. Our office requires a minimum of 24 hours to give our current resident proper notice. All information provided on these listings is subject to change without notice. Please note that the price increases $40.00 per month if an additional resident will be living in the apartment-home.
